Voller General Trading LLC

Core Activities

Voller General Trading LLC is a Dubai-based company specializing in import, export, and wholesale distribution of cosmetics and aesthetic products. With a deep focus on innovation and quality, we have established our own exclusive brand registered in the UAE, with production licensed in South Korea. This brand operates as a subsidiary under Voller General Trading LLC.

Vision & Mission

With over 15 years of experience in the beauty industry, our mission is to provide high-quality, cutting-edge products that meet global standards. We strive to be a trusted name in cosmetic solutions by offering safe, effective, and innovative products. The establishment of Voller in the UAE marked a turning point in our journey toward becoming a regional leader, aiming to expand our presence through international partnerships and distribution channels.

Products & Services

We provide professional-grade cosmetic products designed for clinics, dermatologists, and aesthetic specialists:

- Hyaluronic Acid Fillers
- Poly-L-Lactic Acid (PLLA)
- Meso Therapy Solutions (MESO)
- Skin Boosters
- PCL (Polycaprolactone) Based Fillers

All products are manufactured in South Korea under UAE license and branding, ensuring compliance with international safety and quality standards.

Expansion Goals

Our objective is to build a strong distribution network across the Middle East, Asia, and Europe, while continuing to develop exclusive product lines that cater to the ever-evolving beauty and aesthetics market.

Voller General Trading LLC

The Minor Scopes

In addition to our core activities, Voller General Trading LLC provides a range of strategic support services that empower our clients and partners to operate efficiently and globally:

✓ Easy Access to Global Markets: We facilitate seamless entry into key international markets by leveraging our network and logistics infrastructure.

📁 Consultation for International Trade: Our experienced team offers advisory services to businesses seeking to expand through import/export operations and cross-border commerce.

📦 Direct Shipping from South Korea & China: We provide reliable solutions for sourcing and shipping cosmetic products from South Korea and China directly to your business location.

🚚 Order Transfer & Global Shipping Logistics: From procurement to final delivery, we manage the transfer and shipment of your orders with speed, transparency, and efficiency.

These complementary services are designed to enhance your business scalability and ensure smooth operational flow from factory to final destination.
